Greetings, Fellow TFMC Members!

Since the beginning of the new term on July 1st, things have been moving very quickly. We have worked to fill our chairmanships and thank those of you who accepted positions. Many chairmanships have changed along with our new slate of State Officers. Shirley Spoon and I are working diligently on our new State Directory. If you have a change in information, especially email addresses, please let us know so our Directory can be as accurate as possible. Remember it will be available online. I will send out an email when it is complete. We will also have a few printed copies, for those who do not have internet, available at the Dallas Board Meeting next month. Please make your room reservations soon and mail your registration to Dorene Allen by Aug. 13th. All forms are included in this Messenger. We are looking forward to seeing everyone there. Even though this is a Board Meeting, all are invited to attend.

All 29 Texans who attended OIO had a great experience. The 17 Texas singers who performed in the company were tremendous, as were all the performers. As you plan for your new club year, don’t forget that 2015 will be the fourth year of five for the “Everyone Give One”. For 2013 Texas collected $306 for the South Central Region Endowment Fund to OIO. Our goal is $500 for 2015….let’s all give our $1 per year for this Scholarship.

We will soon be stepping into a new era of our TFMC history and “Crossing the Centennial Threshold” together in 2015. Your enthusiasm and support in each of your Districts will be important. We look forward to working for the goals of promoting our Federation throughout this great state. We will continue our support for many outstanding student musicians who will shape our future.

Club Presidents, please forward this Messenger to all your members and even have a few copies available for those who do not have email. Communication is very important! We look forward to seeing many of you soon in Dallas. We hope everyone has an exciting club year planned and we look forward to seeing your yearbooks!

On a personal note, my summer has been jolted by chemo and radiation treatments that prevented my going to Portland or to Eureka Springs. I appreciate Lois Armor taking my place in Portland and Lynn McNew filling in for me in Eureka Springs. I should be able to go to Dallas and resume my regular schedule. I have full confidence in my doctors that these treatments will take care of the problem. I welcome your prayers.

TFMC suffers important deaths in summer

Doris Ann Stanford passed away June 9, 2014. She had been Dist. 4 President for the past 10 yrs.

She was the current 4th V.P. of TFMC and directed the TFMC Chorus the past three State Conventions. The final choral piece she led was the new composition, “We the People”, composed by Carlie Burdett and debuted for NFMC President, Carolyn Nelson, National guest.

Doris Ann was also a long time President of the Waco Euterpean Club and had held many chairmanships on local, district and state levels.

Jean McCarroll of Marshall passed away June 15th. Her Memorial Service was Sat. June 28th, 11:00 a.m. at Trinity Episcopal in Marshall.

She had been fighting cancer for a long time and she died because of complications with infection. You may remember she had offered to create a quilt for raffle for the 100th celebration.

TFMC history shows service

by Sue Breuer

From its beginnings in 1915, the Texas Federation was in many ways a service organization, and it has remained so to this day.

Consider the situation in our country when the TFMC was being established – World War I was under way, a severe depression followed the armistice, then in about 20 years the world was at war again. Times were not dependable, life was uncertain, and morale was low. In the bad economic times, our musical people were ready and anxious to offer their talents and efforts to build morale and patriotism around the state and among our men who were going to the battlefronts. TFMC sponsored radio programs featuring the state’s best artists, donated musical instruments and radios to schools, and helped implement the WPA’s Federal Music Project in Texas, which gave employment and opportunities to many unemployed musicians. Sixty-five programs were presented in the Paris and Longview area in 1938 alone.

For the Texas Centennial, our state’s clubs organized concerts in every district to celebrate the event, culminating in the major Texas Centennial Pageant at Dallas. It depicted “in drama, color, dance, and song the hardships, struggles, joys, and achievements” of Texas History.

A major Centennial goal was to retain the hundreds of young Texans who sought collegiate musical training outside the state, some perhaps in Europe (impossible during the war years) by establishing a fine arts department at the University of Texas. Partly because of what one Texas senator called TFMC’s “zealous and persistent” petitioning of the governor, state legislature, and board of regents, the College of Fine Arts and Music Department opened at the Austin campus in 1938. It’s dean, Dr. William Doty, served as chair of TFMC’s “Music in Schools and Colleges” for decades.

Incidentally, additional lobbying of the Legislature by TFMC convinced them to adopt “Texas, Our Texas” as our “sufficiently dignified” state song (as one federation president called it)! It was composed by William J Marsh, chairman of the federation’s Texas Composers’ Guild.

Fundraiser planned

District 6 preparing special 100th anniversary pins

District 6, TFMC, is planning to sell 100th anniversary commemorative pins for next year and is hoping to have them on hand at the fall board meeting in Dallas.

The pins are expected to cost between $8 and $10, with a final price to be determined after they are ready for sale. Everyone will want to have one.

Junior clubs earn ratings awards

TFMC junior counselor and new NFMC Ratings and Awards chairman Mary Thomason reminds junior counselors that certificates will be distributed in Dallas of the clubs earning special recognition. Last year Texas submitted more junior club ratings sheets than any other state, and we hope the same holds true this year.

As with the other awards being distributed, they will be given to district presidents if clubs are not present, and then distributed at each fall conference. The junior certificates are quite decorative, and it is difficult to mail them without messing them up.
TFMC Festival attracts students

The TFMC Festival was held in San Marcos at Texas State University. Cathy Neidert, Festival chairman, was in charge.

Around 2,000 students from across the state participated in the festival. Gloria Thrasher, TFMC president, handed out the all-state plaques. A large crew was on hand to help facilitate the festival.

Laurel Ince, founder of the state festival 39 years ago, presented the monetary awards. She was Mrs. Neidert’s piano teacher in the past.

A total of $4,200 was presented to 18 outstanding participants, including the students at right and below.

Kayla Vo of Friendswood received two monetary awards at the May TFMC State Festival totaling $800. Her teacher is Thomas Wells. A total of $4,200 was awarded to 18 outstanding participants. Nearly 2000 students participated in the state festival at Texas State University in San Marcos.

Notices coming soon to club treasurers, presidents, club sponsors

TFMC Treasurer, Dorene Allen will be mailing out dues notices for senior, collegiate and juniors in September. It surely will be helpful to Dorene if clubs send all dues at once. Please pay them promptly by NOVEMBER 15; This will give her time to get the report sent to National Treasurer before NFMC deadline.

Senior Clubs must send a list of all members; name and addresses with the dues. This is for the mailout of the MUSIC CLUBS MAGAZINE from National.

Please include Founders Day contribution ($1 per capita) and the PPA (Past President) dues of ($2) for each term you served your club, district or state as president and any contribution for state or national. This goes to the Young Artist Fund. Also send $1 per member for the “Each One Give One” scholarship at Opera in the Ozarks.

Clubs have been asked to send ($5) to the PNP fund—now known as the Outgoing National President’s Fund to endow the scholarship fund for National President, Carolyn Nelson at the end of her term 2011-2015. It helps Dorene to send it all at once.

Music in Poetry chairman invites participation in monthly club meetings

Dear Music Club Program Planners,

My name is Karen Grilk Noorani. My involvement with NFMC began as a member of a Junior club and participation in Festival throughout my youth. I am now a professional violinist and teacher. I am currently the Regional Chairman of the South Central district for ‘Music in Poetry.’ The NFMC asks each club to file a report each spring (by April 15) describing how their club has found ways to combine the art of poetry and the art of music.

I know that it is often a challenge to put together a club’s programming for the year. Listed below are the ways that the clubs who filed their ‘Music in Poetry’ reports this past year included poetry into their programming. I am sharing these ideas with the intent that this list may serve as a helpful source for your own ideas for your club’s programming going forward. Ideas can be as simple as reading a poem at some of your meetings (a good way for those who don’t perform on an instrument to share) to building an entire program around an opera libretto:

1. All of the clubs that filed their report read poetry at some of their meetings. Readings included choral readings, seasonal poems, or poems related to a particular program theme

2. NW Arkansas Musical Gathering had a member who wrote an original poem, which was then read while Chopin Prelude, Op. 23, #4 was performed in the background

3. Etude Music Club in San Antonio, TX studied the evolution of the Broadway Musical over the course of a year. They used ‘Word Crazy: Broadway Lyricists from Cohan to Sondheim’ by Thomas Hischak as their resource.

I hope these ideas can be a catalyst to your own and that you will share what you do through the attached report form. Please feel free to contact me directly with any questions or suggestions at kcnoorani@gmail.com. I look forward to hearing from you,

Karen Grilk Noorani
