‘Giving Tuesday’ is Nov. 28

“Giving Tuesday” has replaced “ArkansasGives” as an online way to support Opera in the Ozarks. It will happen Nov. 28, the first Tuesday after Thanksgiving.

Log onto the OIO website, which is www.opera.org, and click the “Support Us” button. You can pledge any amount, but a $25 minimum is suggested. Your contribution is safe and is tax-deductible.

We also hope you are contributing to the OIO Annual Fund, which began Oct. 1 and continues until Dec. 31. We are trying to meet a Challenge Grant of $50,000.

Opera in the Ozarks at Inspiration Point Fine Arts Colony in Eureka Springs, AR, will present its 68th season of opera in 2018. Operas to be presented are Die Fledermaus, Barber of Seville, and Ballad of Baby Doe.

District 6 wins trophy at Fall Board Meeting

About 40 members from around the state attended the 103rd TFMC Fall Board Meeting Aug. 18-19 in Dallas.

For the second year in a row, the prestigious Ruth Humphrey Community Service Award went to District 6, accepted by Mary Thomason, president. The award is earned by member participation in music service in the community and choral activities.

This meeting was the first for Lois Armor, who assumed the office of TFMC president July 1. Special entertainment at the Friday night dinner was provided by Amanda O’Toole, who sang at Opera in the Ozarks in the summer. She is pursuing her master’s in Vocal Performance at the University of North Texas.

At OIO this past summer, she sang the title role in Carmen by Georges Bizet. She received scholarship assistance from TFMC and the late Gloria Thrasher. Various workshops, business items and musical interludes took place during the two days of meeting.

Lois led the Texas delegation to Opera in the Ozarks in July and to the Governing Board meeting in November. She also attended the NFMC convention in Dayton, Ohio in June, which was the final time for Lynn McNew to march in the parade of presidents for Texas.

Brenda Dearman presents the Ruth Humphrey Community Service Award to Mary Thomason, District 6 president, at the TFMC Fall Board Meeting Aug. 18-19 in Dallas.
Greetings,

It’s here! The Holiday Season is upon us. Thanksgiving is just around the corner, Hanukah and Christmas are not far behind, and then it will be the beginning of a new year. I hope this season brings you many happy memories.

As we are putting our events into our calendars for 2018, be sure to include the dates of March 22-24, 2018, our TFMC Conference in Midland, Texas. We are planning some wonderful entertainment including Andre Chiang, NFMC’s Young Artist in Male Voice; Workshops, and what a great time of renewing friendships and gaining new ones.

Since we last talked, I have visited with clubs in Ft. Worth and Lubbock. It is a joy seeing members I haven’t seen for a while, observing how the clubs carry on the business of the TFMC and to experience the wonderful music available throughout Texas. I am also enjoying the yearbooks the clubs are sending me. What wonderful programs you have planned for 2017-2018. Thank you for being a part of the Texas Federation of Music Clubs.

Enjoy your Holidays, and we’ll talk next year.

Lois

Lois Armor (near right) poses with Marque McKay and Mary Ann Bridges at the District 1 conference Oct. 28 in Lubbock. Marque is state Women in Composers chairman, and Mary Ann is 2nd Vice-President of TFMC along with being president of District 1 and the Lubbock Music Club.
Reminder to Club presidents, Treasurers -- deadline looms

Dues notices for July 1, 2017/June 30, 2018 were sent to all clubs in September and are due to TFMC Treasurer Dorene Allen by November 15 so that she can meet the December 1 deadline required by NFMC.

Senior Clubs must send a list of all club members, Life members, name and addresses for the mailout of the Music Club Magazine from National. Please consider the Founder’s Day contribution ($1) per capita, and the Past President (PPA) dues ($2) for each term served as president of club, district, or state, and any contribution for state or national. This goes to the Young Artist Fund. (As a reminder-All contributions going to national should be given though the state treasurer so Texas FMCs will receive the credit and recognition.)

Clubs have been asked to send $5 per year to the ONP (outgoing national president fund, formerly PNP) to endow the scholarship fund of Michael Edwards, NFMC President at the conclusion of his term in 2019.

Mail dues to Dorene Allen, TFMC Treasurer; 10605 Richmond Ave., Lubbock, 79424; 432-413-7806; E-mail Ldoreneallen@yahoo.com.

Amanda O’Toole accepts a certificate from TFMC president Lois Armor at the conclusion of her performance at the TFMC Fall Board Meeting August 18 in Dallas.

Madison Younger, a student at Wayland Baptist University, sings at the luncheon of the District 1 conference Oct. 28 in Lubbock. Her accompanist is Dr. Kenneth Freeman, assistant professor at Wayland. Madison is the 2017-18 recipient of the D’aun Marshall District 1 scholarship which rotates among the member colleges and universities in District 1.

Rack Cards for the 2018 season of Opera in the Ozarks
Recognize any Texans in this historic picture? There are some there. This was taken at the opening of the new Duane and Carole Langley Rehearsal Hall at Opera in the Ozarks last summer. Some of the Texans who were there are Carolyn Copeland, Carla and Phil Johnson, Sue Breuer, and daughter Paula. Lee Meyer, Bill and Laresa Yick, Annette Griesbach, Lynn McNew, Richard Drapcak, Tim Danielson, Mr. and Mrs. John Schmidt, John’s sister, Lois Armor, Lois Armor, Linda Hoffman, Susan Hoffman, Nancy Herring, Brenda Ford, and many more we didn’t name. Texas had a large delegation at the opera last summer.
