William Liaw, student of Paulina Chui, is a junior at William P. Clements High School in Sugar Land. He is a member of the Clements National Honor Society and the varsity debate team. He has a black belt in Zen Do Kai Karate and is a peer tutor at schoolhouse.world. William has always loved the piano and often plays pieces as a way to relax after school. He enjoys studying physics and philosophy. He finds that the sensitivity to complexity and beauty one acquires from studying music complements an understanding of the intricacies of the universe.
